

Catarina Da Costa

Student in Master

Student in Master of Management at the GSEM of the University of Geneva, her thesis focuses on the integration of Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) in their decisions.

Catarina Da Costa joined IRAFPA in September 2020 as part of her Master internship. She has been the digital communication project manager since January 2021.

She is also an active member of the OVSM Association - Observatory of Strategy and Management Values and is Vice President Finance of Junior Entreprise Genève.