

Catarina Da Costa

Digital Communications Project Manager

Catarina Da Costa joined IRAFPA in September 2020 as part of her Master's internship. She has been Digital Communications Project Manager since January 2021.

Her Master's thesis in Management at the GSEM faculty of the University of Geneva focused on the integration of Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) into corporate decision-making.

She has also worked for the OVSM Association - Observatoire des Valeurs de la Société et du Management - and was Vice-President of Finance for Junior Entreprise Genève.

She currently holds the position of Management Controller in the Department of Acute Medicine at the HUG (Geneva University Hospitals).
